

Cloverbelt Credit Union

March 6, 2025 ANNUAL MEETING FAQs

Can members attend the Cloverbelt Credit Union annual meeting?

Yes! Members are encouraged to join our virtual annual meeting by phone to hear reports related to credit union operations during the year, and to participate in the board of directors election.

What is the format of the meeting?

The meeting will be limited to conducting the business required at the annual meeting. The credit union president will conduct the meeting, present reports, and administer the voice-vote election process.

How do I register to attend the meeting?

Registration is open until February 27, 2025 and can be done by sending an email to annualmeeting@ccuwausau.com with the full name of the member, the phone number they'll be calling from, and their email address. You can also register by calling us at 715-842-5693 or by talking to any staff member.

What program is being used for the meeting?

We will be using Zoom, which will allow members to join the meeting by calling a conference phone number from any mobile or landline phone. You do not need a Zoom account or online access to join the meeting.

How will I know how to join the meeting?

Everyone who registers by February 27th will receive an email, or a letter if they have no email, by March 4th with information on how to join the annual meeting.

Will I receive an annual meeting brochure with the agenda and reports?

The annual meeting agenda and reports, along with minutes from the previous meeting, will be provided to participants, either as a web link (if an email was provided) or in a mailing (if they have no email).

Who do I contact if I have questions?

Email us at annualmeeting@ccuwausau.com, call us at 715-842-5693, or speak with any staff member.
