

On Thursday, October 14, CCU joined hundreds of other credit unions in Wisconsin for CU Community Day. This is a day where credit unions can show their cooperative spirit and give back to their communities in ways that matter to them. Our staff split up into 7 groups and spent time at various local organizations doing various tasks. Staff was able to help out at the Humane Society of Marathon County (cleaned), North Central Health Care (played BINGO with residents), The Neighbors' Place (made 28 tie blankets), The Women's Community (weeded 2 gardens), The United Way of Marathon County (helped with a bulk mailing), Big Brothers/Big Sisters (made 25 Birthday Cake kits) and the Babies' Place (sorted and packaged diapers).

It was a great day well spent together as a team. The credit union philosophy of "People Helping People" embodies what the credit union movement is all about. CCU is helping to make a difference. We're doing great things in our community!
